FOUNDER'S MESSAGE

"My goal is to see every aspiring women to become an active contributor to the GDP of their country's economy. It's time to breakthrough the glass ceiling."

In the year 2014, I started formally working on Womennovator as a concept, but the story started much before. I have always felt that one of the core reasons that a Woman was unable to take up her passion, owes to the fact that there are not many who would listen to her and take her as a serious entrepreneur, as well as lack of business nuances. This led me to mobilization of small groups of women- no matter at what scale they are working or may just be with an idea; and connecting them to each other to get knowledge, inspiration & perspective. Today, when Womennovator is going Global; it's not only my vision, it's the vision of 8000+ women to reach out and their enthusiasm that has made what we are today. My team has been my pillar of strength who have been diligently working on this since it's inception.

Looking forward to a brighter future, it's time to WIN!

WOMENNOVATOR | THE CATALYST

IDEAS TO ACCELERATE TOWARDS WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

Womennovator is formed by combining the two words 'women' and 'innovator.' Women symbolizes gender and encompasses the economic, social, political, and cultural attributes and opportunities associated with this segment of the society, and 'innovator' is symbolic of new ideas and change that allow 'her' to push the boundaries and follow 'her' visions.

Womennovator is a platform for individuals and institutions that has the potential to influence the ecosystem of 'women empowerment.' It aims to bring together the established stalwarts and the faceless marginalized women to connect and co-create a better working world for women.

According to a recent study, businesses owned by women entrepreneurs in India are likely to grow up to 90 percent in the next five years; however, the government schemes have failed to trickle down the deserving beneficiaries as most of them are "invisible" to the financial ecosystem of the nation.

While women in semi-urban and rural India are aspirational, there is no professional help or guidance available to them locally. This problem got magnified when we witnessed the forced exodus of the tens of millions of migrant workers from urban and industrial areas in cities and towns to their homes located in semi-urban and rural areas across the country during the pandemic. Womennovator reached out to these women with the help of our community leaders – a network of 5000+ men and women working diligently towards making women a true contributor to the nation's economic growth.

The role of community is vital for an equitable societal growth. With the help of our community, we do meaningful interventions at different stages and offer support to women-led initiatives. Our primary goal is to promote aspiring women and build a better working world for them. We are committed to making women and girls contribute as equal partners to the growth and development of the country under the Sustainable Development Goal \(SDG\)-5. At Womennovator, we build Community Leaders who believe in passing the baton to others – the 'common woman' takes agency.

POWER OF THE INFLUENCERS

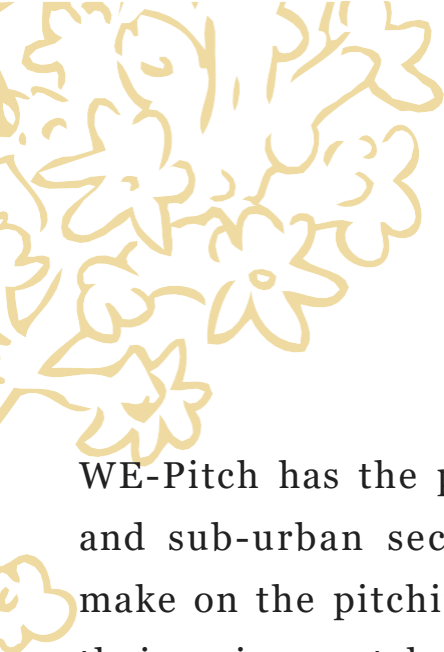

Women need to build communities of leaders to make this wave all-pervasive and self-sustainable. To realize this goal, Womennovator launched the Women Empowerment Pitching (WE-Pitch) competition in 2018, where the role of the community leader is to be the catalyst, - "The Influencer." Today we have over 200+ Influencers in Asia – it's a group of iconic leaders and change-makers representing 90+ sectors and 100+ cities across 20+ countries.

This community (of men and women) is connected by their desire to lend their support towards enabling millions of women - invisible to the financial sector - to participate actively in our society's social, cultural, economic, and political spheres. Through their influence, networks, and resources, they have been instrumental in bringing over 2000+ women under the fiscal radar. The Influencers facilitate funding and share knowledge about myriad government schemes for working women and the philanthropic initiatives of the corporate sector. The group works collectively to challenge the existing status quos and connects with women at the grassroots level to 'uplift' them. Through their identity, networks, knowledge, and resources, the group endeavours to enable millions of aspirational women across the globe. Womennovator's impact-oriented interventions and programs help the group members to support these faceless women and co-create an equitable (gender-just) society.

This group of iconic leaders cuts across multiple sectors, domain, geographies, and cultures. Men and women who lead the community act as a catalyst in bringing about the desired change in lives of their members. Every influencer builds a cohort or community, engages with them, and prepares them to pitch their ideas and businesses to a panel of judges –this initiative is called the WE-Pitch.

POWER OF THE INFLUENCERS

WE-Pitch has the power to transform the lives of women -both in urban and sub-urban sectors. WE-Pitch is the '60-seconds pitch' participants make on the pitching competition day. This opens multiple channels, and their voices get heard and promoted via media, social platforms, and word of mouth. The platform enables the Influencers to bring women from remote corners into the economic and social circles.

Through myriad interventions – like virtual incubation, 1:1 mentoring, easy access to credit and angel funding, and capability building – these influencers work towards giving women agency and financial independence. They also mentor their community members to nurture grassroots levels leadership in the process - the group grows organically and brings more and more women into the gamut. This allows the WE-Pitch initiative to generate scalable and sustainable social impact.

The beneficiaries of the program are known as Women Faces as they take the baton to expand and grow the community to deliver widescale impact.

JOURNEY WITH OUR INFLUENCERS

The Influencers growth is propelled by our community leaders. Community leaders identify Influencers in their professional and personal network and bring them into our ecosystem. The community leaders are influential group of women, and men, who collectively work towards addressing equality, diversity, and inclusion. Some community leaders opt to do the WE-Pitches – they wear the Influencer’s hat and proactively work with women at the grassroots level.

The Influencers group is multidisciplinary and geocultural in nature. This allows the Influencers to offer support to women belonging to every sector, state, and country. They work with their cohort and nominate the most promising professionals and business women for the Womennovator Virtual Incubation program (we shall talk about this later in the report)

MEET OUR INFLUENCERS

THE GRASSROOTS LEVEL CHANGEMAKERS

As we celebrate another year of the We-Pitching completion in 90+ sectors across 100+ cities, it's time to recognize the community leaders –our Influencers – who have gone an extra mile to deliver social impact.

At, Womennovator, we are continuously building communities to expand the reach and make this initiative self-sustainable. We believe in the power of a collective approach and work together to achieve collective goals. While we have 100+ City \(Area\) Influencers across the States and UTs of India, and overseas, some are worth mentioning here.

Introducing our Leader

I started my career way back in 2000 with tier 1 corporate companies of the country and continued for 12 years, however in 2012 I decided to change the poison of my life into medicine for myself and for the world and help people.

I then took my passion to a professional level(while I was studying nutrition as a hobby and passion since 2007) from 2012 I started my professional qualifications in Nutrition and I am glad that there's been no looking back since then.

I have become an employer from an employee to create value and awareness in the lives of fellow women. I have been helping women across the globe to become healthy, empowered and independent.

Jayshri A Jain, wife of a business man, a mother of a son, daughter and daughter in law. Her Journey is very simple yet challenging. She is a graduate with psychology and political science. Post graduate in international trade. She wanted to be a pilot but due to some reason she couldn't do it further. She always wanted to be independent and do something big but after marriage her family did not allowed her to work. After few years when her only child her son grew up, she gave her work a shot as she got a creative side and a good sense of dressing design. She planned to open a boutique cum Salon but then also her family did not allowed. Then she learnt oil paintings and tajor painting from her neighbour friend. She did Acharya in numerology, tarot and vastu, 6 year back when her son moved for his higher studies she got enough time and then she planned to do something independently and cause her forte is in fashion & creativity she started working on that and excelled as well. She got a chance to participate in beauty pageant in 2019 and got the crown. Later she won three more beauty pageants. She use to work with her husband in his export import business as a travel partner but later she has started working as a event and wedding designer where she can show her creativity. Introducing our Leader

Smriti Sarin Hari started cooking workshops and organized cooking events under my company Smriti Studios. She opened her home bakery "CHOCOBEAN"- the very first customised fondant cakes and assorted chocolates, gourmet stop in Mussoorie.

In 2017, she also joined the Chef Association of Garhwal. Her story, her work was an inspiration and an example for other home chefs. This led her to be appointed as the Joint Secretary of the Association. She is the recipient of many awards and has had the honor of being invited as a judge to many national and international cooking competition.

Today, she teaches the art of baking, pickle making and gourmet cooking to other women so that they could use the skill that so naturally comes to them to help them lead an independent, successful and financially stable life. Her passion has helped her empower many other young girls and women who have wings but just need a helping hand to grow and fly.

Introducing our Leader

A super strong & an unstoppable woman who converted her life from 'feeling of nothing' to 'feeling of everything.' And now she inspires and guides thousands and lakhs of people. She guides prisoners in central jails & she is asked to conduct sessions in biggest jails of state and country. She was a professor for 22 years and for 9 years of these she was HOD in college. She took her voluntary retirement and went on Narmada Parikrama on foot, alone and without carrying any money as per the rules.

In 12 months she built 14 ventures alone, to serve the society and environment. When asked how she does so much, she humbly says that she is just an instrument of God and that everything is done by the divine energy.

Priya Gulati is the founder/director of BAGIT CONSULTING GROUP AND TEJASVANI CHARITABLE TRUST AND BUSINESS GROUP . She ventured into journalism and worked for various newspapers and opted for an uncharted territory for a woman by choosing to cover crime beat. Later she decided to start my own venture to help out others in the society. And that's how Bagit Consulting Group was born in the year 2017. Here she started handling public relations, making marketing strategies for various companies in Uttarakhand, specialized in personal branding and promotions. After handling many reputed events and making them popular, she still felt that she need to give other women entrepreneurs of her state a stage where they could also be in the limelight. It would help them to grow their enterprise. So she decided to launch TEJASWINI BUSINESS ASSOCIATION in the Covid laden year 2020 and in 2021 covid TEJASVANI CHARITABLE TRUST was formed to help covid affected families. Where former Governor Uttarakhand Smt Baby Rani Morya praised Tejasvani's work with personal tweet.

Usha Jha is the founder of Petals Crafts which she established in 1991, she had to overcome a lot of adversaries to march towards her dream of becoming a self reliant and empowered women in a patriarchal society. Petal Crafts has travelled a long mile since its inception and have its international presence now. It is registered under Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) program of the Government of India (GOI). As a member of MSMEs, Usha Jha presented the Petals Crafts in two international stages such as "India Show" St. Petersburg, Russia in 2009; and "World Indian Festival" in Singapore in 2014. The famous Mithila paintings of Petals crafts find its space in trains like Gareeb Rath and Sampurna Kranti etc. Usha Jha has always adopted eco-friendly initiatives in the business. After taking Petals Crafts to a certain height she thought of working with more women to empower them economically. According to Usha Jha, economic empowerment of women is the first step in realising the dream of women empowerment in a patriarchal society like Bihar. Under MVK she has focused on the three most important aspects of women's economic empowerment: 1) skill developments, 3) resource mobilisation for micro enterprises; and 3) finding markets for their products.

Reena Agarwal chairperson of Nikita Arts is from Dehradun and according to her it's a place you can call home to artists of various kinds. She has done Diploma in Commercial Art. She has been fond of painting and started at the age of seven. But it is not painting that makes her different from others, it is a new kind of artwork done with nib and knife on velvet. It is oil based and sketched free hand on velvet with white pencil as the base is usually in dark colour. She has hosted exhibition in Dehradun, Mussoorie, Delhi and Bombay. She believes that art is the most beautiful way of expression and painting is a therapy that keeps your mind , body and soul in harmony. She quotes "I always loved European art and thus started to replicate paintings of the European culture in my style. I painted them on velvet without using brush. I use a palette knife for spreading the colours and a nib for the details which is unique in its own way". She has conducted various workshops to teach this unique style of art. She believe the artist in me is a lot because I am so close to Nature.

Nkechi Idugboe, Female and Nigeria is the Founder of the Upper Room Ministries and the CEO of Buytopup. Com Nigeria limited and also the Executive Director of Hanope Blitz Nigeria Group of Companies. She is a speaker and a strong advocate of the Girl Child. In 2018, She launched the Upper Room Speak up project, a program that is geared towards giving lectures on Sex Education, Sexual Abuse and Rape. This initiative is focused on making speaking engagements and lectures at schools, our target been children, teenagers and young adults. She pairs a broad range of creative leadership experience in Ministry and business and this lead her into Marriage and Relationship Counseling, giving birth to another program called "Schooling Marriage and relationships". The focus of this program is speaking to the "woman" on challenges encountered in marriages and relationships. Why schooling? Because instead of speakers coming to teach, the women speak out, telling us what works for them and we get to learn from each other.

Introducing our Leader

Maths is a subject which many students fear. Right from Mastermind's early days, many parents as well as teachers and educators connected with her as this was a challenge they would see on daily basis.

Rashmi P Mahajan has increased awareness about the ancient Indian technique of Vedic Maths by conducting workshops in schools across the globe.

From her modest start of teaching few students maths in a fun learn method, they have come a long way conducting sessions in schools, in India and overseas for over 1200 students at a time and starting a program for training teachers to teach maths in an easy way using innovative techniques. They even empower women by training them in Vedic maths and helping them start their own educational business.
